ST. LOUIS MISSOURI

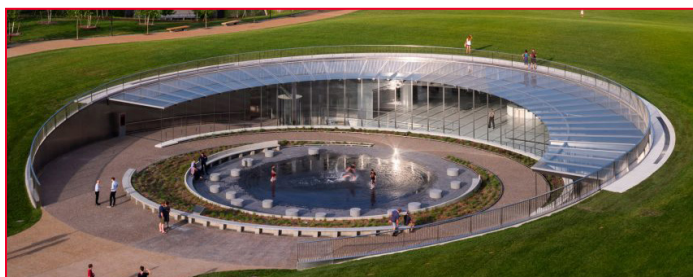

St. Louis is a major city in Missouri along the Mississippi River. Its iconic, 630-ft. Gateway Arch, built in the 1960s, honors the early 19th-century explorations of Lewis and Clark and America's westward expansion in general. Replica paddlewheelers ply the river, offering views of the arch. St. Louis has the eighth-most professional sports championships among U.S. cities (13 overall championships for five major leagues). The history of St. Louis has been heavily influenced by Westward expansion and blues music.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI ATTRACTIONS

GATEWAY ARCH

The Gateway Arch is a 630-foot monument in St. Louis. Clad in stainless steel and built in the form of a weighted catenary arch, it is the world's tallest arch, the tallest man-made monument in the Western Hemisphere, and Missouri's tallest accessible building. From the thrilling views to the amazing stories, a visit to the Gateway Arch is an experience that never fails to inspire. Whether you have a few hours or a full day, you'll find activities to please every member of your party. Attractions include the Tram Ride to the Top of the Gateway Arch, the Museum at the Gateway Arch, a documentary film about the construction of the Arch, shopping at The Arch Store, a new Arch Cafe, and cruises aboard the Riverboats at the Gateway Arch.

GATEWAY ARCH NATIONAL PARK

The Gateway Arch National Park, formerly known as the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial until 2018, is an American national park located in St. Louis, near the starting point of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. The park honors Jefferson's role in western expansion, featuring the Gateway Arch & visitors' center.

FOREST PARK

Forest Park is a public park in western St. Louis. It is a prominent civic center and covers 1,371 acres. Opened in 1876, more than a decade after its proposal, the park has hosted several significant events, including the Louisiana Purchase Exposition of 1904 and the 1904 Summer Olympics. It is America's second largest urban park.

ST. LOUIS ZOO

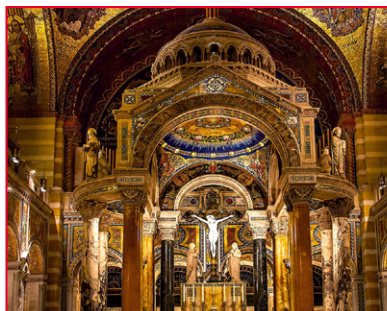

The Saint Louis Zoological Park, commonly known as the Saint Louis Zoo, is in Forest Park in St. Louis. It is recognized as a leading zoo in animal management, research, conservation, and education. The zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums. It has 6,600 animals and 15 major exhibit areas.

MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Missouri Botanical Garden is a botanical garden is known informally as Shaw's Garden for founder and philanthropist Henry Shaw. Today, the Garden is a National Historic Landmark and a center for science, conservation, education and horticultural display - widely considered one of the top three botanical gardens in the world. It features 79 acres of horticultural displays, including indoor conservatories and demonstration, formal and international gardens.

CATHEDRAL BASILICA OF SAINT LOUIS

The Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis, also known as the Saint Louis Cathedral, is a cathedral of the Roman Catholic Church. The Mother Church of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis, the superstructure of the Cathedral was built between 1907 and 1914. It is known for its beautiful interior mosaics, which took nearly 80 years to create using more than 41 million pieces of glass tesserae. The Cathedral is known for having one of the largest mosaic collections in the Western Hemisphere.

SAINT LOUIS ART MUSEUM

The Saint Louis Art Museum is one of the principal U.S. art museums, with paintings, sculptures, cultural objects, and ancient masterpieces from all corners of the world. Its three-story building stands in Forest Park in St. Louis, where it is visited by up to a half million people every year.

BUSCH STADIUM

Busch Stadium, also referred to informally as “New Busch Stadium” or “Busch Stadium III”, is the baseball park home of the St. Louis Cardinals, the city’s Major League Baseball franchise. The stadium seats 44,494, contains 3,706 club seats, and 61 luxury suites.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH ST. LOUIS BREWERY

Historic brewery featuring various tours, a beer museum, a biergarten, a gift shop & classes. With celebrated venues like The Biergarten and signature experiences like the Day Fresh and Beermaster Tours, there’s always something new to discover when you visit.

MAGIC HOUSE

The Magic House children’s museum in Kirkwood is located, just outside St. Louis. It offers kids many hands-on learning activities and provides a special area for younger children.

SWEETIE PIE’S RESTAURANT

Sweetie Pie’s is a soul food restaurant owned by Robbie Montgomery, a 1960s backup singer and former “Ikette.” It was featured in a docuseries on cable TV OWN channel.

SOME NEIGHBORHOOD HIGHLIGHTS

CENTRAL WEST END

This trendy neighborhood has a mix of restaurants, pubs, shops, nightspots and inviting sidewalk cafes, nestled along the edge of St. Louis’ treasure gem - Forest Park that includes the world famous Zoo, Art Museum, The Muny Opera, and History Museum. In the CWE you can catch a movie at The Chase Park Plaza and are just minutes away from the St. Louis Science Center.

GRAND CENTER

This cultural hub of the region is home to thousands of theatre seats, 1,500 cultural events and a dozen galleries and museums. Attractions include the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra, the Fabulous Fox Theatre, KDHX’s The Stage, Sheldon Concert Hall and Art Galleries, Contemporary Art Museum, St. Louis, Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts, Jazz at the Bistro, The International Photography Hall of Fame and more.

THE GROVE

The Grove is a burgeoning new residential/commercial district that features a variety of independent restaurants, shops, galleries and bars centered along Manchester Avenue, east of Kingshighway.

SOULARD

Soulard is St. Louis’ oldest neighborhood. Its streets are lined with red-brick townhomes, live music clubs and unique restaurants. But it really comes alive during Mardi Gras, rivaling New Orleans in its revelry. Attractions include the Anheuser-Busch Brewery, Soulard Farmers Market.

SOUTH GRAND

St. Louis is home to people from around the world, and the Grand South Grand area represents our international roots and the dreams of immigrants from Ethiopia, Vietnam, Thailand and the Middle East, and European nations, to name a few. Attractions include many ethnic eateries and shops and Tower Grove Park.

SOROR VENDOR FORM

January 15, 2019

Friends of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc.

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., an organization of professional women in the field of education, will convene its 96th Anniversary Conclave, July 14-18, 2019.

This national conference, hosted by Alpha Nu of St. Louis, MO, will be held at the St Louis Union Station Hotel in St. Louis, MO. Five to 700 members, local educators, community members and local dignitaries will be present.

To ensure that the conference is a well-rounded educational and social experience for our attendees, we invite you to participate in this five-day event as a vendor in "The Marketplace". The Marketplace will enable us to provide opportunities for participants to shop for apparel and accessories, educational materials, art, books, organizational paraphernalia, home decor and other quality items.

Please find enclosed the Vendor Contract indicating your interest in showcasing your products during this conference. Complete and submit the attached Vendor Exhibit Space Contract – Soror.

The deadline for submission of the Contract and Money Order or Certified Check to cover the cost of the Vendor Space(s) you request is on or before May 31, 2019. Contracts will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis as space permits. Please note the available accommodations in the form below.

Hotel Reservations may be made under the conference rate by June 7, 2019.

Friends of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc.

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., an organization of professional women in the field of education, will convene its 96th Anniversary Conclave, July 14-18, 2019.

This national conference, hosted by Alpha Nu of St. Louis, MO, will be held at the St Louis Union Station Hotel in St. Louis, MO. Five to 700 members, local educators, community members and local dignitaries will be present.

To ensure that the conference is a well-rounded educational and social experience for our attendees, we invite you to participate in this five-day event as a vendor in "The Marketplace". The Marketplace will enable us to provide opportunities for participants to shop for apparel and accessories, educational materials, art, books, organizational paraphernalia, home decor and other quality items.

Please find enclosed the Vendor Contract indicating your interest in showcasing your products during this conference. Complete and submit the attached Vendor Exhibit Space Contract – Business.

The deadline for submission of the Contract and Money Order or Certified Check to cover the cost of the Vendor Space(s) you request is on or before May 31, 2019. Contracts will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis as space permits. Please note the available accommodations in the form below.

Hotel Reservations may be made under the conference rate by June 30, 2019.

VENDOR EXHIBIT SPACE CONTRACT – BUSINESS

January 15, 2019

Dear Business Owner/Entrepreneur,

We invite you to be a part of "The Marketplace". The Vendor's Registration Fee for Business is $600.00 for the five-day conference which includes one (1) space (standing rack or six-foot table with cloth and two chairs). The cost for each additional space will be $250.00. All displays must be included within the allotted 10ft space. Please note that vendors who occupy space beyond the contracted amount will be charged the appropriate fee during the conference.

Vendors may set up between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 13, 2019. The Marketplace will open on Saturday, July 13, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. All spaces must be vacated by midnight on the last evening of the conference, July 18, 2019.

Vendor space is limited, and participation will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. Vendors are responsible for the security of their displays. Attaching displays or signage to the walls is prohibited. Vendors will be held responsible for any damage to hotel property.

Please make checks payable to the NSPDK, Inc. and mail this form and a check by May 31, 2019 to:
